1. Sol Plaatje University has no intention to enter into any agreement with any Accredited Off-Campus Accommodation. Accreditation merely serves as an indication that the property meets the minimum requirements for Private Accredited Student Accommodation as provided for in terms of relevant legislation. Any agreements entered into will be between the owners of Private Accredited Student Accommodation and the Students occupying the property.
2. SPU accepts no liability in respect of any amounts owing to any Accredited Off-Campus Accommodation. Any Accredited Off-Campus Accommodation will be obliged to enter into an agreement with each individual student, and recover all outstanding amounts from such students directly.
3. Accreditation is an annual process. This list is only valid until 31 December 2021.
4. Accreditation can be revoked through the course of the year if it is found that previously Accredited Entities no longer meets the minimum requirements. In such an instance, the relevant landlord as well as the students residing there will be informed accordingly.
